Adult, Teen and Family Programs — November 2016

Family Programs

Day of the Dead: Family Literacy Fiesta Tue. Nov. 1 • 4:30pm

We'll learn about Day of the Dead traditions with literacy activities for the whole family. Whether you're learning your ABCs, trying to improve reading comprehension, or seeking to build strong writing skills, we'll have fun games for readers of all levels!

Family Story Time Sat. Nov. 5 • 11am

Stories, songs, and movement for children and families of all ages.

Gamemaker's Studio Tue. Nov. 8 • 4pm

'Tis the season of snow days, road trips, and vacations—fight off boredom with games! Learn fun activities and games you can play anywhere and anytime, make flipbooks and trivia decks, and invent your own games and activities to take home (or anywhere else) with you.

Sweet Adventure to CANDYLAND Thu. Nov. 10 • 3:30-5:30pm

Come and take a stroll through the Peppermint Forrest as the game, Candyland, comes to life at the library! You will be the game piece as you try to make it to the Candy Castle. Join us for plenty of candy fun and make a super cool, fake cupcake to take home.

International Games Day Sat. Nov. 19 • 10am-1pm

Come celebrate International Games Day with us! Whether you're a board game wiz, a card shark, a trivia champion or you love Life-Sized games, we've got something for you. Bring a friend or the whole family, and get your game on at the library!

Cabarrus Co. Senior Center

The following program will be held at the Cabarrus County Senior Center, 331 Corban Ave. Concord, NC 28025. Call 704-920-3484 to register.

This class will discuss safe habits for surfing the web & will help you feel more comfortable searching, shopping and socializing online. This class requires basic computer skills.

Adult Programs

DIBS Book Discussion Tue. Nov. 1 • 6pm

This month we will discuss Dead Wake by Erik Larson.

What Happened Historical Book Discussion Mon. Nov. 14 • 6pm

This month we will discuss Fighting for General Lee: General Rufus Barringer and the North Carolina Calvary Brigade by Sheridan Reed Barringer.

Adult Coloring Wed. Nov. 9 & 30 • 12-1pm

Coloring isn't for kids anymore! We provide the materials or feel free to bring your own.

Cabarrus County Curiosities & Oddities Mon. Nov. 21 • 6pm

From the historic to the hilarious and the official to the offbeat, discover "the rest of the story" behind some local people, places and names. How did Concord & Kannapolis get their names? What is the big painting in the library's auditorium? Why is there a graveyard in the mall parking lot? Local history librarian, Leslie Kesler, and reference librarian (and native son), John Eury, lead a lighthearted tour down some of the lesser-known byways of Cabarrus County history.

SHIIP Open Enrollment Wed. Nov. 30 • 9am -5pm

Cabarrus County SHIIP (Seniors' Health Insurance Information Program) offers free, objective information about Medicare, Medicare Supplements, Medicare Advantage Plans, Medicare Prescription Drug Plans (PDP), extra help paying for Medicare PDP costs, and more. SHIIP also helps citizens recognize and prevent billing errors, fraud, and abuse. Attend a small-group session for assistance with comparison and enrollment, or to schedule a one-on-one appointment, call 704-920-1400 (option 7, then option 2).

FOOD FOR FINES

November 28th – December 10th

Donate a canned/nonperishable food item and $2.00 will go towards your overdue fines! Bring as many items as you would like to help fight hunger in Cabarrus County!

Teen and Tween Programs

Pokémon Club! Thu. Nov. 3 • 4:30pm

Ages 10-14— Trainers of all skill levels are welcome to join and test their skills. Both Pokémon trading cards and video games are welcome, and feel free to bring your own. Loaner decks will be provided if you do not have your own cards.

Teen Advisory Board & Airbrush Art Thu. Nov. 10 • 6pm

Ages 13-18— Want to make the library better? Tell us how! Come share ideas, collaborate with other teens, and stay to make art with airbrushes!
