On June 19, 2014 at approximately 7:50 pm, Deputies responded to 4883 Birdie Way Court, Concord, North Carolina in reference to a report of a man being shot. Upon arrival at the scene, Deputies spoke with Larry Wayne Knight 54, of 4883 Birdie Way Court. Knight had been shot twice in the chest. Knight advised the Deputies that he was shot by William Brian Lomax 40, of 4900 Birdie Way Court. Deputies were able to arrest Lomax at his residence without incident. Larry Wayne Knight was taken to CMC Northeast and then later transferred to CMC Main where he is in critical condition. Lomax was taken to the Cabarrus County Sheriff's Office where he was charged with assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious injury with intent to kill. Lomax is in the Cabarrus County Jail under $400,000 bond. The altercation is believed to be domestic related however, this investigation is still ongoing. Any further questions, please call Chief Deputy Paul Hunt at 704-920-3002.
